Longfellow Presents The Upstanders

A documentary about resilience and the power of peers to end bullying.

The Upstanders explores cyber-bullying, bullying amongst friends, families, co-workers and the brain science behind it all. It delves into the power of resilience, adaptability, community and belonging.

The film highlights new laws and well-established programs already reducing bullying in schools and communities. As with all of our films, we provide resources and tools with the hope that we can learn to make a positive difference together.

TONIGHT, October 7th

Our schedule for the evening:7:00- 8:00 p.m. Movie

8:00-9:00p.m. Panel Discussion

Our panel will include- Marissa Brooks, Director of Student Services

Ted Tynan, School Psychologist

Jeanne Veraska - LMS Social Worker

Reflections - Art Competition: The Theme for the 2020-21 School Year is I Matter Because...

Calling all Longfellow visual artists, musicians, dancers, film makers, and writers! It's time for you to express the theme "I Matter Because" through paint, photography, composition, choreography, production and writing! Yes, "I Matter Because" -that's this year's PTA Reflections theme!

Students submit their completed works of art in one or all of the six available arts categories: Dance Choreography, Film Production, Literature, Music Composition, Photography, and Visual Arts. Students can only submit one completed work of art per category - but are welcome to provide one submission in each of the 6 categories. Additionally - you must be a Longfellow Middle School Student to enter via the links below.

Submissions will be done online. All submissions are due by Friday, October 9. Please access the website for submission rules here and the following links have been created for students to submit their entries:

- Middle/Dance
- Middle/Film
- Middle/Literature
- Middle/Music
- Middle/Photography
- Middle/Visual

Questions? Please contact Reflections Co-Chair Amanda Abraham at amgruzas@yahoo.com.

Judging will take place in the fall and all students will be notified before Thanksgiving break. Student winners from the local level have the opportunity to move up through their district, region, and state PTA programs to the national level.

McLean Safe Community Coalition Event

Setting the Tone: Habits for a Smooth Virtual Learning Experience

Livestreaming Thursday, October 15, at noon

Author and educational consultant Ana Homayoun will examine how setting students up socially, emotionally and academically during the pandemic pivoting and change is key to long-term well-being and engagement. She will also discuss how taking the time to set the tone for a smoother school year means looking at daily and weekly habits that work for your students and your family.

In 2001, Ana founded Green Ivy Educational Consulting, LLC, an internationally recognized organization that works with parents, students, educators, and employers.

This event is FREE, but registration is required.
