Principal Kihm's Retirement

Principal Kihm's heartfelt message clearly shows why she is so loved and will be missed at Longfellow. We know that everyone retires eventually, and there will never be a "right" moment for her departure, but we are all lucky to have had the time with her when we did.

Principal Kihm has truly Inspired Excellence in our whole community, not just within the walls of Longfellow. We know that this is a very difficult time for her family and that her retirement is bittersweet. However, Principal Kihm has touched many lives, both students and parents alike, and her legacy will carry on in our hearts.

To show her how much we have appreciated her, please share your thoughts, memories, photos of Principal Kihm, or whatever you would like and send them to principalkihmretires@gmail.com by Friday, May 15th. We will turn those memories into a keepsake book for her to cherish. If you know Longfellow families whose lives she touched, please pass this request to them as well.

Also, be on the lookout for further details regarding a retirement send off, gift, and other details sometime next week. If you would like to submit any ideas, please send them to Jennifer Von Elm at jennifer.vonelm@gmail.com.

With Much Appreciation,
Jennifer, Karen, April, Mel, Shelly, Neetha and Somer
